

Do You Know Who King Philip and King Alexander Really Were?

King Philip - 1600's, was really Metacomet, or Metacom and sometimes called Pometacom, a war chief of the American land, aboriginal and indigenous. He was a Sachem (where Sheik or Chief comes from etymologically). The Europeans called him 'King Philip'. His brother, Wamsutta was called 'King Alexander'. See how changing the appellation to a 'name' is a party to diffusion of the truth, and why we were told that falsehood and truth is strangely mixed. The Europeans called the aboriginal and indigenous people indians, but we know better, as we know who the aboriginal and indigenous people are and what they looked like. We know they are the Moor (first navigators) Americans, the true aboriginal native Americans found on the continent by the Europeans when they got here.

A Later King Philip!!! -1800 (left) was Ee Mat La of the Seminole Moors Family, a war Chief from the Second Seminole War.

Check out Micanopy, known as Micco-Nuppe, Michenopah, Miccanopa, Moc-an-opa and Sint-Chakkee, which means 'pond frequenter', as he must have spent a lot of time at the pond, probably meditating, particularly on the insurgence of the colonists, who wanted to suppress the aboriginal and indigenous people because CLEARLY, they (colonist) were disrespectful of nature, of life, of humanity. What can you expect from uncivilized barbaric slaves, murderers and thieves. This is the second of wars for the natural people of the land against them. Micanopy was a war leader in the Second Seminole Wars - Check out his hair, as they are locks. Hair like lambs wool, skin like brass - copper— as in the copper-colored people found on the Continent .

American: n. an Aboriginal or one of the various copper-colored natives found on the American Continent by the Europeans; the original application of the name. —Websters 1828 American Dictionary of the English language and 1936 Websters unabridged 20th century dictionary.

Wow, we REALLY do need to have schools that teach our own — Don't we? This information is "Mind Blowing proof of the Mental Slavery.
