

I Am: _____

 Moors Heritage & History School Love • Truth • Peace • Freedom • Justice "The Boat has Left The Dock"	 19th day of February, 2014 -- At New York Empire State Class Instructor: Anaidah El Class Title: "Articles of Confederation 1643-1684"
--	--

1. What do they call the land where the plantations are?
2. What does it appear that they are basing this confederation on?
3. Who is the article of confederation with?
4. Do they have the authority to draft a confederation? why?
5. Who has jurisdiction and what is the names of the colonies under that jurisdiction?
6. What does this confederation call themselves?
7. "And that according to their different charge of each Jurisdiction and Plantation the whole advantage of the war whether it be in lands, goods, or persons, shall be proportionably divided among the said Confederates." What is this? Who is included?
8. Who or what is the Commissioners for this confederation?
9. "bring a true account and number of all their males in every plantation, or any way belonging to or under their several Jurisdictions, of what quality or condition soever they be, from sixteen years old to three-score, being inhabitants there." What does this reference today? In complying what are you saying of yourself
10. What are the commissioner authorized to do?
11. What are their prosecutorial powers?
12. When do the Commissioners meet?
13. Does this confederation have a president? How is he selected, and what powers does the president have?
14. When they reference the "Indians" on page 80 section 8 line 10, where it reads "how all the Jurisdictions may carry it towards the Indians, that they neither grow insolent nor be injured without due satisfaction, lest war break in upon the Confederates through such miscarriages." What do you think the climate/conditions were between the Moors of Morocco, the Brutish Moors, and their members?
15. Can Moors be "members" of the "plantations"?
16. What has the plantations going forward become known as?
17. Why can't Moors be members of the state of New York, etc.?

The Moorish Divine and National Movement Of The World